

The Lord's Prayer (Matthew 5:9-15)

Leader: After this manner therefore pray ye:

Congregation: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

For you ... have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Daddy! Father!"

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

For as heaven is higher than earth, so His ways are higher than our ways, and His thoughts than our thoughts.

Give us this day our daily bread.

For it is written: Man must not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of God."

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

For God--yes, God alone--will blot out your sins for His own sake and will never think of them again.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:

For He has delivered us from such a terrible death, and he will deliver us. We have put our hope in him that he will deliver us again.

Together: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Amen.
